

2020 Volunteer of the Year Nomination Form

Please note: nomination forms must be completed in full and submitted by 7/1/2020

Award description: The Family Promise of Blount County Volunteer of the Year Award is intended to recognize an individual who has made significant contributions to the organization through their dedication and volunteer service. Nominees have provided an exceptional level of passion, support, activity, commitment and/or leadership over an extended period of time. This recipient is considered an “ideal” volunteer who has participated in a special activity, brought additional resources to the organization or enhanced the ability of Family Promise of Blount County to carry out its goals or increase its impact. This award provides the highest level of recognition from our organization to its volunteers.

Any or all of the following may be considered in making and evaluating nominations.

- Contribution from nominee has been consistent and sustained, not just a single contribution or two.
- Nominee is involved throughout the year, not just associated with a single event.
- Nominee sets an example that we would like others to emulate.
- Helps to actively promote FPBC's name and mission among a variety of audiences.
